

DUNN WRITING CONTEST

Feeling creative this summer?

We're looking for writing that is inspired by one of these elements:

Art in South Dakota
Animals in Art
Landscapes
The Human Story in Art

The Dahl Arts Center and High Plains Writers invite you to participate in a writing program inspired by the art work of Harvey Dunn. A total of $200 is available for the most creative writers in two awards in each of two age groups.

Inspiration is FREE! Participants can enjoy free admission to the Dahl Galleries to view the Harvey Dunn-Selected Works exhibit, just mention you are visiting as a contestant, or refer to images on the Dahl website at www.thedahl.org

Young authors are encouraged to participate. All entries will be divided with special awards for youth participants.

CONTEST DEADLINE

October 8 @ 4pm

Contest Rules

1. Authors are limited to one entry per category.
2. All forms may enter - essay, poetry, short story, ect - with limitations:
 - a. Entries may not exceed 2 pages.
 - b. Poems should not exceed 75 lines.
3. Authors are required to indicate whether they are 16 and Over or Under 16 on each entry.
4. All entries must include contact information on the right corner of the first page.
5. Submit entries by Oct. 8 to: jwalker@rcplib.org or Rapid City Public Library
attn: Jason Walker
610 Quincy Street
Rapid City, SD 57701
6. Judging performed by High Plains Writers and Dahl Arts Center appointees and is not subject for review. Awards ceremony will be held at the Dahl Arts Center on Oct. 15 from 4:30 - 6:00pm