

ADULT ART CLASSES AT THE DAHL

We are thrilled that you are interested in spending time creating, connecting, and learning with us here in the Art Education Department at the Dahl Arts Center. We hope your experience will leave you with a deeper appreciation, understanding, and love for the arts.

Please review the following information prior to the class start date.

---

CONTACT INFORMATION

Katie Wolff | Education Coordinator
RCAC | the Dahl Arts Center
713 7th Street
Rapid City, SD 57701
605.392.4101 x3
605.394.1858
katie.wolff@thedahl.org

HEALTH

If you (or anyone in your family unit) have a cough, fever, persistent headache, loss of taste or smell, shortness of breath, fatigue, feel generally unwell, or have had a close contact with any confirmed COVID-19 positive cases, we ask that you please do not participate in a class or enter our facility.

If anything pertaining to the statement above changes during the duration of the class or shortly after, we ask that you promptly notify us at the Art Education Department (using the contact information above) so that we may promptly take appropriate and necessary action to slow the spread of the virus.

If you become ill while at class (persistent cough, fever, fatigue, etc.) we ask that you promptly remove yourself from the class and the Dahl Arts Center facility.

We deeply and sincerely appreciate your understanding and cooperation during these strange and unprecedented times. We're in this together 😊

CLEANING AND SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

Below are the safety procedures we have implemented and will be following for classes:

- All participants and instructors in our adult classes are required to wear a mask. Please put on your mask BEFORE you enter the building.
- We ask anyone entering our facility to use the provided hand sanitizer.
- Class sizes are limited to 6 participants in the First Interstate Bank Classroom, 8 students in the Bankwest Classroom, and 4-5 students in the Pottery Studio to allow for appropriate distancing practices based on classroom size and functionality.
- Each participant will have their own personal supplies for the duration of the class, and their supplies (paint brushes, sculpting tools, etc.) will be disinfected each day after a class ends.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Please note, if classes are cancelled by the Rapid City Arts Council--due to the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic or otherwise—you will be refunded 100%.

- Classes are filled on a first-paid, first-served basis. Registration is not in effect until payment is received in full.
- To transfer or cancel your enrollment call 605.394.4101x3. Processing fees may apply.
- Class Transfers requested 48 business hours prior to class start date will not be charged a processing fee.
- Class Transfers requested less than 48 business hours prior to class start date will incur a $5 processing fee.
- Class Cancellations requested 48 business hours prior to the start of the class will be charged a $5 processing fee.
- Class Cancellations requested less than 48 business hours prior to class start date are non-refundable.
- Once again, if class is cancelled by the RCAC, you will be refunded 100%.

---

Once again, we appreciate your ongoing support and understanding during these difficult and unsettling times. We hope that the time you spend here at the Dahl serves as a creative outlet that nourishes your artistic spirit. If you have any questions or concerns whatsoever, do not hesitate to contact our Education Coordinator, Katie Wolff, at katie.wolff@thedahl.org.

“You can't use up creativity. The more you use, the more you have.” –Maya Angelou